Use of the DiVE: Part 1

Duke University CIT
Visualization Incentive Grant: Demonstration and Exploratory Projects Incorporating Visualization into Teaching and Learning
Spring 2007 Call for Proposals

DUE DATE for Part 1: by 5 p.m. on March 9, 2007

Email completed application form to: cit@duke.edu with subject line “visualization grant application - DiVE”
The due date for this initial application is somewhat flexible. CIT will begin review of applications on 3/9 and those submitted on time will have first priority for review and consultation.

Before you write your proposal...

Those applying to use the DiVE facility are assumed to have a fairly well-developed idea of what their project would entail, and MUST have either

• attended one of the DiVE Open Houses (Thursdays 4:30-5 pm),
• attended the CIT/Visualization Group workshop about the DiVE on 2/21 (register at http://cit.duke.edu/events/explore.do#396) or
• had a private consultation with Dr. Rachael Brady, Director of the DiVE.

Applicants are also welcome to consult with CIT prior to completing this application. Email cit@duke.edu to arrange an appointment.

Project Information

Project title:

Description of your planned project/activity (WHAT do you plan to do, 200 words or less):

Why is this project important (WHY are you hoping to do this project)? Your description should be written so as to be understandable to those outside your discipline. Include:

• How would this project change the way you teach in this class, or change how this topic/subject is typically taught?
• How do you expect the project to affect student learning in your class(es)? (i.e., what do you expect students to know or be able to do as a result of your project, which they might not otherwise?)
• Why does your project require the immersive visualization environment of the DiVE?
• What are your goals for the project?

How do you plan to measure the effectiveness of your project/activity (its impact on student learning)?

Note: applicants are invited to contact Yvonne Belanger, CIT’s Program Evaluator, for ideas and suggestions about evaluating the effectiveness of projects, prior to submitting the application (send email to cit@duke.edu.)
☐ I have attended a DiVE workshop or Open House, or consulted with Rachael Brady to learn about the capabilities of the DiVE and other visualization tools, on date: ____________________________.
